

ANTISECT

So who are we? What are we? Is this punk rock? What the fuck is punk rock? What are we here for tonight? What do we do now. There's hundreds of us here. Is it just music? Is it a night out? Or does this shit mean more to us than that?

WHAT DO YOU OFFER?

To us, it's an opportunity. A chance to engage. A chunk of time and space where we can interact with people who "know". A chance to reaffirm who and what we are, and a chance to explore the possibilities.

Nothing is sacred and most things aren't what they seem. The world is a vicious place. Full of cold realities that, most of the time, we choose to push to one side in order to simply survive. Is that it? Is this how we should live out our lives?

HOW FAR CAN YOU SEE?

One time. One chance. One opportunity to make our mark before we return to dust. We ask you to make it count. We urge you to get out there amongst it. Share your thoughts, ideas and opinions and not be afraid of the challenge. Plenty will disagree with you. Plenty will suggest that what you say is naive and idealistic. But we say that to be idealistic is not the same as being unrealistic. Change is incremental, and it comes from the hearts and minds of those who are not willing to accept things as they are.

WHAT KEEPS YOU GOING?

We don't have to agree. But it is surely better that we are open enough to listen and interact. There is no be all and end all. There are no truths other than those which we allow ourselves to believe. Everything is subjective.

HOW BRIGHT IS YOUR FLAME?

History is made up of seemingly insignificant moments that went on to change the world. Nothing can be taken for granted, but we can often earn what we wish for. We're all here to be shot at. Stand still and we're easy prey. Make moves and we are no longer a sitting target.

HOW LONG HAVE YOU GOT?

For most of us, life makes it easy to do nothing. For others, that is the more difficult option. Some of us can't let it go. Life can be short, fragile. Reach out. Touch everything.

Let's go...
